What is Women Build???

Women Build is a national Habitat for Humanity program that encourages and empowers women to make a difference by building affordable homes and stable communities. We raise the funds, learn construction skills and use those skills to help move families out of poverty by building simple, safe, affordable homes. Women Build is not about excluding men; it is about including women in the field of construction, so we can all help the cause of affordable housing.

Locally, Women Build is a Habitat coalition of Fairfield County women who have accepted the challenge of eliminating substandard housing in our community—one house at a time. We volunteer our time to raise money to sponsor and then build houses. You do not need to have construction skills to volunteer – Habitat staff and task leaders will teach you the skills you need to help build the house.

We have just begun the planning process for Women Build 7 (WB7), and have committed to building a Habitat home in Stamford. We are currently in the process of raising a full House Sponsorship, $250,000 so that we can begin construction. The WB7 home will be one unit of an eight-unit townhouse complex at the corner of West Main Street and Spruce Street.
